WEDDINGS

MILLER - SCHULTE

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday morning, October 16th, when Lois Helen Schulte, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Schulte, Strathmore, was united in marriage with Cpl. V. R. Miller, R. C. A. F., youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, North Battleford, Saskatchewan, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. Hetherington, officiating.

The bride entered the Church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Wedding Music played by Mrs. B. H. Joyce, the church organist. The bride looked very attractive in a beige wool dress and wearing a corsage of Tallasman roses, and brown accessories.

She was attended by Miss Betty McMurray of Strathmore who chose for the occasion a very becoming twopiece powder blue wool frock and a corsage of Sweetheart roses with brown accessories.

Cpl. Ronald Thompson, R. C. A. F., performed the duties of best man.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast served in the Spanish Room of the Palliser Hotel attended by relatives and intimate friends, where the young couple received felicitations of their friends. Later the bridal couple left for a short honeymoon in Banff.

For travelling the bride wore over her wedding dress, a very smart top wool coat in golden tan with beaver collar.

Cpl. and Mrs. Miller will reside in Calgary where the groom is stationed at present.

The bride has lived in Strathmore for the greater part of her life where she has many friends who will join in wishing for her and her husband, a very happy and prosperous life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Schulte have been residents of Strathmore for about thirty years. Mr. Schulte being engaged as Electrical Engineer for the C. P. R. D. N. R.

A wedding of much interest to the Carlsland and Strathmore communities took place in the United Church Thursday, October 14th, when Violet Groves, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Groves, of Strathmore and Gordon Christensen, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Christensen of Carlsland, were united in marriage, Rev. S. R. Hunt officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked very attractive in a white, sheer over taffeta, floor-length gown with white chapel veil and carried a bouquet of roses and fern.

Miss Margaret Groves, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a floor-length gown of blue, sheer over taffeta, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern.

A reception for about fifty guests from Strathmore, Carlsland and Calgary was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were very beautifully decorated

IRRIGATION FOR STOCK WATERING

—(EDITORIAL)—

Irrigation as such has been a matter of prime importance in Strathmore and surrounding territory, within a radius of 35 miles for the past thirty-five years, since the surveying and excavating by the C. P. R. of the many canals and ditches, through which has flown the waters of the Bow River, for land and stock watering purposes.

For the past two years the subject of Irrigation has been a very live topic and has been discussed, with conviction by many who are in favor, and with equal conviction by many others, who, for various reasons, have been opposed.

The purpose of this article is not to enumerate the causes and difficulties that have led up to the present situation, but to write of conditions as they exist today.

These conditions have led to several public meetings being held of which the sole purpose was to discuss the situation as it exists today, and to arrive at the best means of action. Without going into minute detail, everyone knows committees were formed to act in the best interests of the farmers at large. This committee also being given authority to approach the C. P. R. to place the situation before the Company and obtain from them the most satisfactory settlement possible. This committee has now fulfilled its onerous duties up to this point and we understand in a very satisfactory manner.

We are informed the C. P. R. Co. has been fairly generous in its offer with the Committee.

With pink and white streamers and bouquets of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums adorned the tables. The bride's table was under a canopy of bells and streamers and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Rev. Hunt proposed the toast to the bride in humorous vein, and Gordon graciously responded.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left amidst a shower of confetti and a host of good wishes, on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Groves, mother of the bride chose for the occasion a street-length gown of wine velvet with matching accessories and a corsage of Tallasman roses. The groom's mother wore a street-length of blue and wore a corsage of roses.

The happy couple returned Sunday and are now residing in the Carlsland district.

Their many friends in both communities extend very best wishes for a long and happy life together.

LEWIS - THOMSON

On August 7th, at Church of the New Jerusalem, Woodlands Rd., by Rev. E. J. Pollock, Leland P., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd P. Lewis, Log Cabin Garage, Cheadle, Alberta, Canada, to Agnes (Nancy) Pirie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Thomson, "Cragella," 44 Hillsborough Rd., Garrowsville, Baillieston, late of East Haddon Rd., Dundee Reception, The Angus, Argyle St., Glasgow.

Strathmore and Cheadle friends extend very best wishes for a very happy future for the young couple, and will welcome the bride to Canada when the big conflict is over.

There the question rests at the moment.

The next move is the vitally serious one that rests at the door of each farmer — i. e. — to make the decision whether he wants a limited amount of irrigation for stock watering, a small acreage of green feed and a garden, or to continue with his present irrigable acreage, or no water.

In this decision lies the future of this district for weal or woe.

It is a question of such major and vital importance that we again repeat the fact that has been stated so often before — that without this irrigation surface wells and sloughs would dry up, shelter belts and shade trees would in a few years be non-existent, gardens would vanish, and green feed for stock no longer grow.

Picture this condition you men and women voters, who will soon be asked to record your vote, and do not be a party to bringing about a Dust Bowl in this area.

Let us look to the future and vote accordingly. Instead of one large Mass Meeting, smaller Community Meetings are to be held in which you will be asked to make your decision.

Let the total vote, record a large majority in favor of irrigation being continued.

Rev. E. J. Hoad B. A. Lth. Appointed to Okotoks

Strathmore citizens generally and the parishioners of St. Michael's and All Angels' Church particularly were both surprised and grieved, when Rev. Hoad announced to his people that he had been appointed to the Parish of Okotoks, the transfer to be effected during the week of November 7th, and Mr. Hoad's duties in his new field to commence Sunday Nov. 14th.

It is just fourteen months since Rev. Hoad came from Claresholm to take charge of the Church's work in Strathmore and surrounding communities, and in that time by his ability, devotion to his work and general all round good citizenship, has established himself in the hearts of his people and won the esteem of the general public.

Mrs. Hoad has too, on every possible occasion proven a genuine help-mate to her husband.

We very sincerely regret their departure, but nevertheless extend the kindest good wishes for their future.

Services for Mrs. R. Brown

Funeral services for Mrs. Robert Alexander (Amy Pearl) Brown, 52, of Strathmore were conducted from Park Memorial chapel Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17th. Rev. S. R. Hunt officiated. Interment was in the family plot, Burnside cemetery.

Mrs. W. Mercer rendered the solo "The Sands of Time are Sinking" in very sweet voice.

Palbearers were, A. V. McFarland, M. May, B. Fessenden, M. S. Hirtle, W. Polley and J. Crellin.

The sympathy of the community is extended Mr. Brown and his three sons.

MR. AND MRS. SWENSON HONOR GUESTS AT BANQUET

Mr. and Mrs. S. Swenson were honor guests of friends from Crowfoot, Inglewood, Calgary and Strathmore at a gathering of one hundred and seventy-five guests held in the Memorial Hall Tuesday evening. Mr. H. A. Ruppe made a very able Chairman.

Grace was said by Father Fitzpatrick, after which all enjoyed the delicious dinner served in the usual efficient Hanselman style.

A program of music and addresses was thoroughly enjoyed by every one. Mr. Swenson came from Union Town, Washington in 1914 and worked for the C. P. R. for two years. In 1914 his marriage to Miss Mary Hoesen took place and in the spring of 1917 Mr. and Mrs. Swenson moved to the district where they have since resided, and where they have established a real home noted for its kindly hospitality.

Mr. Swenson farmed 4100 acres jointly with J. J. Dahm, until 1918, when Mr. Dahm sold his share to Johnny Boyle. This carried on until the fall of 1925, since which time Mr. Swenson has carried on a 1400 acre farm, largely of wheat land. They have built up an entirely modern home and a well improved farm. Feeling the urge to take life a little more seriously they sold this farm recently to Mr. James Harwood, for a cash sale approximating $28,000, and have bought a house on the North Hill in Calgary.

The family consists of one daughter Mrs. P. J. Smith and two sons, Oscar C. Swenson, who is now in the Ogden School at San Diego, where he is foreman in an Airport Repair Construction Co.

It was to show their appreciation and esteem for this genuine good-neighbor attitude so continually extended, on the part of Mr. and Mrs. S. Swenson, that their neighbors and friends of surrounding districts arranged this very delightful evening. Commemorative speeches were made by Rev. S. R. Hunt and Mayor Gannon.

The Chairman called on Norman Scheer to make the presentation address.

Mr. Scheer spoke in warmest terms of the good neighborly hospitality and general helpful spirit that was an outstanding feature of the Swenson Home to which their friends and neighbors wished to pay tribute.

He expressed the belief that this friendship would be continued and wished for them very many happy years in which to enjoy the comfort of the efforts their friends and neighbors would make to bring about a beautiful tri-light floor lamp and a walnut easy chair.

Mr. Swenson expressed the thanks of his wife and himself for the kindly words and beautiful gifts and assured them their Calgary door would be as open as had been the door of the home they are now leaving.

The musical program arranged by Mrs. T. S. Hughes interspersing the various speeches was greatly appreciated. Numbers given comprised, Community singing led by Mr. Patrick, with Mrs. Walter Mercer at the piano.

A chorus by six Miss Canada's, including Frances Jones, Frances Gray, Doris Koch, Eileen McFarland, Elva Robinson and Irene Willson with Mrs. T. S. Hughes and Mrs. Mercer assisting and Miss Georgia Chapman at the piano, received very warm applause.

Two solos by Mrs. Walter Mercer accompanied by Miss G. Chapman, "The Lass with the Delicate Air" and "Dear Little Boy of Mine" were very beautifully rendered, the latter being particularly effective.

Two very humorous solos, "Sister's Short" and "The Last Word" by Mrs. Mercer accompanied by Mrs. Mercer were received with gales of laughter.

Two solos by L. A. C. Richard Stanger accompanied by Mrs. Nilsson were sung in excellent voice and received warm applause. They were, "Your Eyes Have Told Me So" and "Give Me the Open Road".

Dr. Giffen dressed to suit the part and with his tried and true "Uke" brought down the house in his song, "That's How I Got My Start" and "What Whiskey Does?"

Another group of songs by the Miss Canada's varying in mood, gay, patriotic, serious and affecting, the girls' voices blending smoothly, brought the program to a close.

Chairman Ruppe invited all to remain for a social hour of conversation with their friends.

Welcome guests among the large number were L. A. C. Richard Stanger and L. A. C. Neil Weaver, son of Mrs. Molinias, who wearing the Uniform of the R. C. A. P. quietly but significantly testified to the facts of the terrible conflict raging in the great outside world.

The young girls serving as table attendants were Beryl Bland, Helen Keeler, Shirley Horton, Dorothy Molinias, Mrs. Pauline Longbottom, Mrs. Margaret Godfrey, Bernice Egeland and Mrs. Neil Glendinning.

Yes, We'll Do It!

If thoughts of our peaceful Alberta countryside and the contrast of devastation in war-torn, faraway lands does not impress you;
If the freedom available to us arouses no emotion in your breast;

If you do not thrill to the mighty war effort of dauntless Britain, massive Russia, dynamic United States, fiery Australia, gallant New Zealand, South Africa, India and our own great Canada;

Well, then, buy a war bond for the sake of our own Alberta boys who are on the battle line!

They have gone from the Peace River lands, from the mountains and rolling foothills, the park lands and short grass plains.

They've gone from Pouce Coupe and Bon Accord, Three Hills, and Seven Persons, Veteran and Loyalist, Blackfoot and Pegian, Fort Saskatchewan and Athabasca, Iron Springs and Grassy Lake, Milk River and Battle River, Silver Heights and Golden Meadow, Whiskey Gap and Rocky Mountain House, Hanna and Hilda, High River and High Prairie, Drumheller and Bassano, Red Deer and Elk Point, Cardston and Carmangay, Stettler and Strathmore, Elmore and Rosalind, Chinook and Condor, Azure and Paradise Valley.

They've gone from Orion and Hespero, Vermillion and Purple Springs, Claresholm and Hazeldean, Innisfail and Innisfree, Empress and Throon, Smoky Lake and Lac La Biche, Rosebud and Little Gem, Viking and Valhalla, Banff and Brooks, Cereal and Ghost River, Pincher Creek and Manyberries, Peacock and Owlseye, Warspite and Makepeace, Westlock and Bowfirth, Bentley and Big Valley from Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat, we cannot name them all.

Thousands of farms, every hamlet, town and city have sent their young men. In the air, on the sea and on the land fronts these boys from our own Alberta are fighting with the bravest. They are our boys, our farm boys, town boys, city boys.

Guess we'd better buy plenty of war bonds for the sake of our boys!

FIFTH VICTORY LOAN

WE, not some of us, but all of us, must keep buying War Bonds and we must do it now. We can't put off until tomorrow what we should do today. There certainly will be no tomorrow for us, no tomorrow in which we could live, unless we win this war and win it decisively. And the only way in which we can win it is to pour our money, through War Bonds, into guns, planes, ships, ammunition and food and equipment, for the men in our fighting forces.

The men in the forces are risking everything. If they lose, we are lost. They cannot win, without the help we send them.

Millions of people in the war devastated area have lost homes and treasures of all kinds. Do you want that to happen here? It will if we do not back up our men in the battle line. —Reprinted by Wheat Pool Budget from N. Y. Sun.

It's a mistake to speak of making sacrifices to buy War Bonds. It is no sacrifice. It is a safe investment.

Some there are who state the bonds will not be worth anything after the War is over. We do not agree with this, as Canada has never yet failed to honor her Bonds. However, if that were true, your money would be no good either. Buy Bonds, to speed the day of Victory and hasten the day when the boys can again return home.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY CHAMNEY CELEBRATE 25th ANNIVERSARY

The Chancellor Memorial Hall was the scene of a gala occasion on Tuesday even October 12th, when around 200 friends and neighbors gathered to help Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chamney celebrate their 25th Wedding Anniversary. The Hall was appropriately decorated with a large bell in the center of the ceiling, from which streamed streamers in red, white and blue, and the walls were hung with flags and V for victory signs. The same color scheme was noticed on the banquet tables, the table at which the guests of honor sat being decorated with red, white and blue candles, and beautiful long stemmed white gladioli and white carnations. A three tier wedding cake, beautifully decorated, completed the arrangements.

Mr. J. M. Wheatley, as chairman, made a few appropriate remarks on the sterling worth of Mr. and Mrs. Chamney as citizens of the community and of their kind hospitality, after which a very enjoyable program was given, assisted by friends from Hussar Standard, Brooks, Calgary and Drumheller.

Those taking part were Mrs. N. I. Hansen, who rendered a beautiful solo Mr. C. Dahl, who brought greetings from Standard; Mr. L. Snyder, bringing greetings from Hussar; a humorous reading by Mrs. E. J. Bell; a solo charmingly sung by Mrs. C. T. Armstrong; a few witty remarks from Mr. Russell Kidd; a short address by Mrs. Phillips; Mrs. Fred Christensen addressed Mrs. Chamney with a little verse of her own composition, and addresses were also given by Mr. S. J. Blair of Calgary, Mrs. J. McGhee of Brooks, and Lt. Col. D. Tomlinson of Calgary. The highlights of the evening were the mock wedding, put on by the Chancellor and Hussar players, and the humorous skit, 'They Tell Me' ably rendered by Mr. and Mrs. T. Knowlton. Those taking part in the mock wedding were, Mrs. Ben Snyder, as the blushing bride, who wore a gown of wine satin with veil to match, Mrs. Wheatley as the groom, attired in gray morning trousers with a red top hat; Mr. P. Rogers as bridesmaid, who wore a becoming gown of light green satin, cut very low, and carrying a bouquet of dried Russian thistle; Mrs. Betty Lawrie, as best man, had a little difficulty in finding the ring, and Mrs. Bessie Trend, as the bride's father wore her long whiskers to perfection. The flower girl was played by Mrs. Violet LeGrandeur, who was attired in a pale blue crepe paper dress, and carried a basket of cabbage leaves. Mr. Phillips, as the priest, addressed the bride and groom as fitted the occasion.

Mr. Phillips, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mr. and Mrs. Chamney with two beautiful silver entree dishes with gravy boat to match.

After the entertainment, the floor was cleared and a dance was enjoyed until the early morning hours. Mr. and Mrs. Chamney were married in Washington, D. C., coming to Chancellor in 1919. They have one son, Harry.

The good wishes of the community go with Mr. and Mrs. Chamney for many more happy wedding anniversaries.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Blair, Calgary; Lt. Col. and Mrs. Tomlinson, of Calgary, and Mrs. J. McGhee; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Emmie; Mr. and Mrs. V. Halmon, all of Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kidd of

STANDARDStandard Unit Sets the Standard for Alberta

It was a great thrill for Standardites early Monday, October 18th, to have the "Fifth Victory Loan Flag" flutter in the breeze with their First Penant floating gaily beneath it, signifying that their Unit had gone over the top. First in the Province of Alberta, in Victory Bond Sales.

The committee, under the able leadership of J. P. Madsen as chairman, and with Mr. F. D. Knowlton as Unit Organizer and Secretary, decided to make the best of good weather and good roads to get their canvassing done in record time. There was much good natured rivalry among the Salesmen, and every one of them expressed their pleasure at the cordial reception they had received at their many places of call.

Standard's quota was greatly increased this time, and at first the committee was dubious as to whether they could make it, but they were all prepared to make a real drive, and were jubilant when they passed their Quota Mark on Saturday.

The Committee and Salesman are as follows—

J. P. Madsen, Chairman and F. D. Knowlton, Unit Organizer and Secretary. Salesmen are— J. E. Macadam, A. V. Southall, C. R. and Walter Melssen, O. Fiksdal, Walter Hymas, J. P. Madsen and F. D. Knowlton.

FARMERS AND FARM WORKERS

If Your Farm Work has Slackened for the Winter, You Are Needed Elsewhere in Essential Employment

Highly essential work—very important in Canada's war effort and for the welfare of the Nation—is threatened with shortages of workers. One of the few sources of men available for other high priority jobs is those men on the farm who will not be needed at home during the Fall and Winter. Heavy needs must be met in many lines—producing vitally essential forest products; in base metal and coal mining, in food processing, in railway track maintenance. If you live on a farm and are not needed at home during the Fall and Winter, you are urged to answer this national appeal.

Farmers engaged in essential work during the off season will be allowed to return home when needed. Also, those on postponement under Mobilization Regulations will continue on postponement while in approved essential work during the slack season on the farm.

Please answer this vital call NOW.

CONVICTION QUASHED BY CALGARY COURT OF APPEAL

—Deeg VS Pugh—

A conviction for the supposed theft of railway ties laid against Edwin H. Deeg of Lyalta recently was quashed by the Calgary Court of Appeal, the Court ruling that the defendant had as much right to the ties as Mrs. Pugh.

Not being fit for military service, a little man tried for a job as a striker in a blacksmith's shop.

After looking him over the smith picked up the biggest hammer and threw it out of the window, saying, "If you can do this you can start work."

The little man picked up the anvil and threw it after the hammer, saying, "O. K., are we working outside?"

"Probation after Death" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is Psalms 16:8. One of the Scriptural citations is "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God" (Revelation 2:7). One of the co-relative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "They, who know not purity and affection by experience can never find bliss in the blessing company of Truth and Love simply through translation into another sphere" (p. 36).

The following details have been received concerning the death of Wm. Klien, who was killed in action in Sicily July 22nd, from a letter written by Captain Byrnes, now a prisoner of war August 19, 1943

Dear Mrs. Klien,
 This letter will be as difficult for me to write as for you to receive as it concerns your son, William.

By this time you will have been notified that he was killed in action in Sicily. He was with me constantly as my driver up until the last day, July 22nd, and it was while carrying out his duties that he fell. Very briefly, it happened as follows—

He was driving me along a lonely road in the forward area. We had no suspicion of danger as we had seen none of the usual tell-tale signs. Suddenly, the crack of a bullet, sounding from forward, I turned to shout at Bill when I saw the bullet had struck him in the head, killing him instantly. The car left the road tossing me out. I was captured a few minutes later, but before I left, I was assured by the Germans that he would be decently buried and his grave marked, and I know they would do this.

He was a good soldier, doing his work faithfully and without grumbling. He was a friend, and as such, will be missed by everyone in the company. He died for what he believed in and

"If money go before, all ways lie open."

Shakespeare

OUR FIGHTING FORCES are now definitely on their way to Rome, Berlin and Tokyo.

True it is that the roads they must travel may be long and tortuous with death and danger lurking at every turn. The going may be slow and tough but, with steady though heavy step, our men will trudge every mile with grim determination, yet with inspired enthusiasm—for Victory is in sight.

To make easier and shorter the way for these, our gallant fighting men, is the part and privilege granted those who remain behind. That we may encourage them and lighten their task by our unstinted efforts to speed the needed equipment. That we may by our self-denial make available the monies needed to assure their superiority in air, sea and land. Thus shall we make smoother the ways, and shorten the days, towards the triumphal entry of our fighting men into Rome, Berlin and Tokyo.
